

CHRIS GODDARD

Designer: Chris Goddard. Company: Goddard Design Group, Springdale, Arkansas, USA. Specialising in creative, elegant and timeless spaces for both residential and commercial work around the globe. Current projects are the restoration and renovation of an important mid century residence designed by E. Fay Jones, creating a client's dream English country home filled with colour and whimsy, and a massive residence five years in the making. Recent work includes the renovation of a contemporary prairie style residence, a historic American craftsman home and a lake house retreat. Design philosophy: turning houses into homes.
